November 7th, 2021 10:30 AM Twenty-fourth after Pentecost

"Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—'Father, save me from this hour'? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." – John 12:27-28

That goes beyond human understanding

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Good morning and welcome to our Remembrance Day Service to honour the men and women who served Canada in times of war, military conflict and peace. Let us remember the sacrifices and achievements of the one and a half million brave Canadians who served, and continue to serve, our country at home and abroad so that we may live in peace and freedom today.

May this worship service be a blessing in your day as we continue to worship together each week in-church or by Zoom.

- 1. Roof Update: King Construction was on site last week to fix 3 leaks in our copper roof – so hopefully now the rain will stay outside the sanctuary! They've identified 2 other places where the copper roof is buckling which will need to be addressed in the future. A big thank you to the Property Committee and special mention to Kyle Mathers for spearheading this project.
- 2. FundScrip: Time to start your Christmas shopping? Do it with FundScrip gift cards. Use the cards to purchase gifts or give the cards as gifts to family and friends. Gift cards make great stocking stuffers too! We will have two orders before the holiday season – Sunday November 14 and Sunday December 12.
- 3. Christmas Wish Tree: Every year the people of St. Paul's share their Christmas spirit and generosity by buying gifts for children. Next week – November 14th – the Children's Wish Tree will be set up in Narthex. On it, you will find angel tags bearing Santa wishes from 40 children whose families are being looked after by the Fredericton Food Bank this Christmas. Select an angel, buy a gift and return it to the church by November 21st. Many of you look forward to sharing in this tradition. We hope we can count on your support in this difficult year.
- 4. St Paul's Quilter have been invited to participate in a Fabric and Yarn Sale at Wilmot United Church on November 20th. If you have yarn or fabric just taking up space in your home, please bring it to St. Paul's before Nov. 18th and we will find it a new home. All proceeds from the items donated will be retained by St Paul's Quilters.

- 5. Grandmothers Helping Grandmothers are selling wreaths again. Nancy MacGarvie is selling them from her porch at 83 Grey Street. Double sided balsam fir, decorated $16; Undecorated $13. Deadline for orders is November 21st. Pickup Sunday November 28th. Call 455-3026 or email nancymacgarvie@rogers.com. Proceeds are in support of the African Grandmothers in conjunction with Stephen Lewis Foundation and Help Lesotho.
- 6. The Nashwaaksis United Church is having their Annual Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, November 20th from 9-noon. They will have bake tables, craft tables, silent auction, and much more. Free Admission!
- 7. Lectionary Bible Study: Join Rev. Michelle Wednesday at 11:11am in the Ladies Parlor for bible study. Come have your questions and insight inform Sunday worship. The reading for next week's study will be 1 Kings 19:1-18
- 8. Gifts with Vision We've received the Giving Catalogue for this year and copies will be available both in the Office & the Narthex. You can also browse online at www.giftswithvision.ca. These gifts would make lovely Christmas gifts for children as a way to introduce them to the idea of philanthropy and maybe even spark the joy of giving within themselves!

May our faith drive us to seek to be in right relationship with the first peoples of this land.

HYMN WORDS

HYMN: Where Two Or Three Are Gathered

MV 14

Where two or Three are gathered,
I am there, I am there.
(repeat 3x)

HYMN: Come and Find the Quiet Centre

VU 374

Come and find the quiet centre
in the crowded life we lead,
find the room for hope to enter,
find the frame where we are freed:
clear the chaos and the clutter,
clear our eyes, that we can see
all the things that really matter,
be at peace, and simply be.

Silence is a friend who claims us,
cools the heat and slows the pace,
God it is who speaks and names us,
knows our being, face to face,
making space within our thinking,
lifting shades to show the sun,
raising courage when we're shrinking,
finding scope for faith begun.

In the Spirit let us travel,
open to each other's pain,
let our loves and fears unravel,
celebrate the space we gain:
there's a place for deepest dreaming,
there's a time for heart to care,
in the Spirit's lively scheming
there is always room to spare!

CLOSING HYMN: I feel the Winds of God Today

VU 625

I feel the winds of God today;
today my sail I lift,
though heavy oft with drenching spray
and torn with many a rift;
if hope but light the water's crest,
and Christ my bark will use,
I'll seek the seas at his behest,
and brave another cruise.

It is the wind of God that dries
my vain regretful tears,
until with braver thoughts shall rise
the purer, brighter years;
if cast on shores of selfish ease
or pleasure I should be,
O let me feel your freshening breeze,
and I'll put back to sea.

If ever I forget your love
and how that love was shown,
lift high the blood-red flag above;
it bears your name alone.
Great pilot of my onward way,
you will not let me drift.
I feel the winds of God today;
today my sail I lift.
